There are a number of soap trees growing in Tallahasse. They are prolific fruiters, the berries being about the size of, an ordinary marble, having a yellowish, soapy appearance, with a hard black seed, from which the trees are propagated. People in Tallahasse boil the fruit to make soap, but in China, Japan and other tropical countries the berries are used as a substitute for soap just as they are taken from the trees.

On the smooth, hard surface of the belly is the inscription, carved in distinct characters: "Union: Co. K, 26th regiment, Ohio Volunteers, Nov. 18, 1864." Roller-skating rinks have degenerated into public nuisances in many quarters. In our secular exchanges we find many items that show this. In Bordentown the Common Council passed an ordinance restricting the hours of attendance for school children and the sale of intoxicating liquors. A bill has been introduced in the Minnesota House providing that males and females shall not be allowed to occupy the floor of any Roller Skating Rink at the same time. In an other place, the name of which we have not preserved, the Board of Education gave notice that the attendance of any public school teacher would be equivalent to resignation.--Ex.

Much for Little.

In this age when the events of yesterday in all parts of the world are found in to-day's paper; when tidings of a battle in Egypt or China are flashed across seas and laid at our door before its smoke is dissipated, it is necessary for a well-informed people to have access to reliable maps. Not all can afford the heavy library atlases, and even they are often found untrust-worthy unless a new copy is purchased as often as revised.

If you want an atlas, small enough for general use, full enough for nearly every purpose, critically accurate and up to date, we recommend the new Handy Atlas of the World, published by Messrs. Ivison, Blakeman, Taylor, & Co., 753 and 755 Broadway, New York, which is both a credit to them and the American press. It is bound in flexible cloth, contains 38 beautifully colored maps and important statistics. Among its many notable good things are maps showing standard time, the railways of the United States, recent polar expeditons, Central Africa as explored by Stanley, the seat of the Egyptian war, Bible Lands, and our principal American Cities. If your book-seller does not have this excellent work send fifty cents direct to the publishers and receive it by return mail.

PUBLISHERS' DEPARTMENT.

The College Record.

The College Record for March will be published this week. It is a bright monthly, half the size of the EVANGELIST. It will contain the College News, Society articles, editorials, miscellaneous matter. Subscription, 25 cents per year, six months 15 cents. A neat book "Our Dead Poets" will be given as a premium for two subscribers, 50 cents. Address the Pub. House.

Why Not?

S. writes that the EVANGELIST was never better; H. writes that baptism, in his opinion, is a matter of choice, and renews his subscription because there is a tone of candor about the paper which he admires; M. writes that the paper has lost nothing in character and usefulness.

That is what many think about it, and it seems to us that the EVANGELIST is a good paper for those to read who make no religious profession. Will our faithful supporters remember that there is a fertile field outside of the Church and circulate the paper there too. There are many who will take the paper three or four months if they are simply asked to do it, and we are thankful for small favors, as well as, large ones, besides a good work may result.

The Brethren's Mutual Relief Association.

The Brethren's Mutual Relief Association is a benevolent, property insurance institution. The aim is not to make money, but only to secure among ourselves what is costing a great deal of money among others.

To the Brethren of Ohio we would especially say, if you have property to insure, put at least a portion in our Association, and in a year or two, we will have an extensive insurance association of our own, and will save many hundred dollars that are now paid out for guarantees against loss by fire and lightning, and still have insurance more safe and reliable. WONDER-BOOKS in no trifling sense, but the best literature of the world presented in excellent and attractive form, at prices so low as to excite universal "wonder."

"A wonder-book in more senses than one. The idea of putting a work like this at only $2.50 per copy, seems preposterous; and yet there is wisdom in it, for everybody will want it, and it will thus be the means of advertising and introducing the numerous other valuable books which the publisher is putting forward."—Christian at Work, New York City.

"It is truly a marvel of skill and a triumph of modern mechanical art that such a noble volume can be furnished at so small a cost. Whether we admire its large proportions, beautiful binding, fair page, excellent paper, numerous and striking illustrations, numbering nearly 100—all are first-class."—Christian Cynosure, Chicago, Ill.

Equally good editions of these are not elsewhere obtainable for less than $4.50; my price $2.00; postage 34 cents.

The above cannot be obtained from any other publishing house for less than $10; my price is $1.75; postage 30 cents.

"This is indeed a wonder-book, in the amount and valuable quality of its contents. The wonder is how such a book, which is a library in itself, can be sold at such a price."—Methodist Recorder, Pittsburgh, Pa.

"Your 'Historical Wonder-Book' IS a wonder—a wonder how an imperial octavo volume of over 1,000 pages, with many illustrations, clear type, fine paper, handsomely bound, containing four standard historical works of great value, can be sold for $2.50."—BENSON J. LOSSING, LL.D., the Historian.
